 HELLO...JUST WANTED TO SAY KEEP YOUR HEAD UP. ITS HARD TO LOOSE A LOVED ONE, MY MOTHER (PHYLLIS) PASSED IN FEB OF THIS YEAR AND I'M STILL WAITING FOR THE TEARS TO STOP FALLING. I GREW UP GOING TO THE "CANDY STORE" IN BOSTON. OUR PARENTS WERE STRICT ON US FOR A REASON. WE DIDN'T SEE IT THEN BUT IT WAS ALL FOR OUR GOOD. WE TURNED OUT GREAT!  EVERYONE, that has responded by posting a message on this online registry, my heartfelt appreciation.

Dad loved to Work hard; he loved to Travel. Surprising how much He & I are alike. 60's Group, The Stylistics sang, "People...Make the World Go 'Round!"

Again, all of you are wonderful. Dad would be so amazed that I have made such great friends & associates...AVM

 Andre, my pizzo,

I was very saddened upon hearing of the sudden death of your father, Mr. Felton, M. I know it's going to be hard on you and your family during this moment of sorrow but remember, my family and I will be praying for you. If there is anything we can do to help you during this time of sorrow, we're here for you.

Also, I'm not much for words but, after reading the eulogy that your wrote for your father, I was inspired to be more open minded and to listen to what people from all walks of life have to say.

GOD Bless you and your family.

 Andre, Felton Milteer Sr. was my friend. As a member of the Norfolk chapter of Mended Hearts I met him at one of our monthly meetings. He was warm and unabashedly friendly - I got the impression that he had known me all my life. At the MH Convention in San Antonio he introduced me to you. He often told me stories about visiting you in Europe when you were stationed there. I will cherish your written tribute to him.

 I only 'met' Andre this year through our mutual online interests, but can feel what a great guy he is! I am so sorry for your loss and your family's loss. I am also so happy to read of your 'miracle' in reconnecting with your Dad last year. The journey through grief is difficult, but made easier through warm memories. Best always,
Diane

 To the Milteer Family, As I read thru the online Suffolk News Herald I came across the obit for Mr. Felton, as we called him in Boston, Andre your message was truly inspirational & I'm glad You & Your Father embraced life before his passing. Know that God has chosen another Strong Angel to join him in paradise. As a child in Boston growing up down the hill, we lived for Mr. Felton's store, had it not been for Mr. Felton's penny cookies & candy, there would have been a lot of sad kids in Boston.....Continue to hold on to the memories,,,they will get you through.

 I did not know Mr. Milteer, but am sorry for his family's loss. I do however know his son, and that he did an outstanding job raising him, as he is truly a great person. That to me says a lot about Mr. Milteer. I would like to send our condolences and prayers to all of his family and friends.

Sincerely
The Rodriguez Family
